Insurance Wholesaler Insential Specializes in Commercial Property Solutions, Including Unusual or Difficult Risks to Place

Dallas, TX – April 23, 2014 – Insential, Inc., the Property and Casualty insurance wholesale brokerage company, announces its full service Commercial Property support for retail agents and their clients. Its wholesale experts utilize their extensive experience in brokerage, niche program arenas and underwriting to provide customized, innovative and competitively priced solutions for agents whose clients have complex and/or hard-to-place property risks. Those challenges may be in manufacturing/distribution, hospitality, healthcare or a number of other categories requiring special attention due to exposures, loss and/or capacity issues.

Insential's long standing and strong relationships with top-rated insurance carriers facilitate its ability to efficiently tackle all types of property accounts on a national basis. In addition to Commercial Property, Insential offers insurance coverage for a broad spectrum of Primary and Excess Liability exposures, including Environmental, Energy and Construction-related risks as well as Employee Benefits (including alternative group plans), Financial Services and much more.
